Was the MESA information you received in your home country clear? Was the description of your training site accurate? What more would you have liked MESA to send you before you left your home country?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Yes, all the MESA information was clear. - The training site is accurate. - MESA sent me good advices and somethings I could prevent before coming.
If you worked with a Program Representative in your home country, was he/she helpful? Is there anything more the Representative could have done to help you complete your application or to better understand MESA's program?	Every step was clear, it was important to read the requirements needed in the embassy, they also give a brochure about rights for workers, in the interview they ask about it.
Any problems with housing, electricity, heat, phone, driver's license, bank account, transportation? Other problems?	I would have liked more facility for public transportation. So I could go in my freetime to museums or music festivals, however I always ask to someone to take me to the grocery store and the library.
Describe the training you have received since getting to your placement site. What have you learned so far? Have you attended any special training, workshops, conferences, classes, etc.?	I have learned the procedures of bottling, the different kinds of grapes that produce a specific wine. How to pack bottles, boxes and organize orders. I also learned about pruning and compos. I haven not attended to a conference yet.
Have you been involved in an cultural activities since your arrival? (examples : farmers' workshop, library event, soccer games, family activities, etc)	Yes I have been involved with the cultural activities, last sunday was eastern so we sang, ate different food and hided eggs for the children. There was a wineclub event too.
