

Windy Acres Dairy Farm

Prineville, Oregon

	MESA Notes - Public
	Website :	http://windyacresdairyfarm.com
	Blog, Online Newsletter, etc. :	http://Windyacresdairyfarm.com
	Public Contact Information:	windyacres26@gmail.com

About the Placement:

Detailed Placement Description

The farm is diverse and has lots of growth ahead. it is a small business that produces many products and can add even more. It is a woman owned and operated business, operating with volunteer members to support the work load. It is a grade A dairy providing raw food to its members and the community.

Primary Production :

Bees/Honey, Berries, Dairy, Pork/Swine, Poultry, Sheep, Tree fruits, Vegetables

About the Internship

Training Hours:

32-40 hours a week on an average

Training Expectations :

Watch, learn, and participate

On-Site Training, Steward's primary activities :

There is cheese making/ training once a week. milking cows daily, butter and cream making, marketing and transporting of products, land and grazing management, preparation of food, irrigation skills, growing crops,

Climate and Location Description

It is rural, about 4 miles from town and 45 minutes from Bend a larger community. Four seasons, winter, spring, summer, and fall. Some snow.

Compensation :

between 200-500, cabin or room, Free, daily food

Accommodations and amenities provided :

internet access, use of vehicle, use of kitchen,

Preferred start date :

April 1

Preferred length of internship :

7 to 12 months
